

Student Project Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA)

Receiving Party (Students): Japmansingh Modi, Rohan Rohan, Ewa Rapucha, Adam Jarmouni, Narissa Swandika, Onyedikachi Valentine Ukwu, Abdullah Sarfraz

1. Purpose

The Receiving Party may have access to confidential information, data, software, or systems (the "Work") in the course of undertaking a student project. This Agreement ensures the confidentiality and protection of such information and sets out the obligations regarding intellectual property and publication.

2. Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" includes:

- All non-public information regarding the Work, including software, systems, documentation, business processes, or client data.
- Any data or materials labelled as confidential or reasonably understood to be confidential.

The Receiving Party agrees to:

- Use Confidential Information only for the purpose of the project.
- Keep it strictly confidential and not disclose it to anyone outside the project team without written permission.
- Follow data protection laws (e.g., GDPR) if handling personal data.
- Return or securely delete all Confidential Information after the project ends or upon request.

3. Intellectual Property

- Any IP created by students during the project ("Foreground IP") is owned by Client.
- Students waive moral rights (e.g., to be identified as author) in Foreground IP in favour of the Client.
- Students may not use Foreground IP outside the project without prior written consent.

4. Publication and Communication

- Any drafts of reports, papers, or presentations relating to the Work must be submitted to the Client for review before release.
- Client may request:
 - Modifications or deletions to protect IP or confidential information.
 - Delay of publication up to 9 months for IP protection.

5. Duration

- Confidentiality obligations continue indefinitely unless formally released in writing.

6. Legal

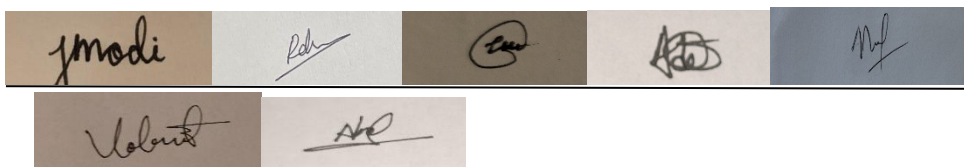

- This Agreement is governed by the laws of England & Wales.
- Breach may result in disciplinary action and/or legal consequences.
